

Cabin Rules

SCA Cabin in Moostal

General

Please do not enter the living area of the cabin with hiking boots.

Please bring a sleeping bag and, if needed, your own pillow.

The SCA cabin has hot water.

Tiled Stove (Kachelofen)

You can use the tiled stove to heat the dining room and the sleeping area.

To heat the stove:

- Open the lower air vent
- Light the fire using kindling
- Once the stove is well heated, a maximum of two wood briquettes may be added
- After about 2 hours, the lower air supply must be closed
- When leaving the cabin or before going to bed, make sure the stove door is closed

If points 2 to 4 are followed, embers and warmth will last until the next morning.

Kitchen Stove

To heat the kitchen stove:

- Open the lower air vent
- Light the fire using kindling
- Once the stove is well heated, a maximum of two wood briquettes may be added
- After about 2 hours, the lower air supply must be closed
- When leaving the cabin or before going to bed, make sure the stove door is closed

Please use the available wood sparingly and do not use it for campfires.

Kitchen

The SCA cabin kitchen is fully equipped (pots, dishes, cutlery, filter coffee machine, etc.).

Please bring the following items yourself:

- Dish towels
- Garbage bags (please take your waste with you)
- Cleaning cloths and cleaning supplies

Toilet Facilities

Please do not dispose of sanitary products in the toilet.

Cleaning

Before departure, please:

- Leave the sleeping rooms as you would like to find them
- Carefully dispose of the ashes from the tiled stove and kitchen stove in the designated metal container in the entrance area
- Thoroughly clean the kitchen, dishes, glasses, and kitchen stove
- Clean the toilet, washroom, and bathroom
- Vacuum the kitchen, common room, and entrance areas, then mop them

If the cabin is not properly cleaned, the final cleaning will be carried out by the cabin manager and charged at a flat rate of €200.

Departure

- Close all windows before leaving
- Carefully lock both doors

Please follow these cabin rules so that future guests can also enjoy their stay at the SCA cabin.

Your cabin managers

David and Anni